PROJECTS

Loan Default Prediction Using ML And AI

Notebook Link: Loan Default Prediction

- Created a model to predict loan defaults for a retail bank.
- Optimized, feature-engineered, and compared key models: Logistic Regression, Decision Tree, Random Forest, KNN, XGBoost, LDA, QDA, SVM, and ANN.
- Maximized recall while balancing precision to optimize the cost-benefit ratio.
- Recommened deploying a Decision Tree Tuned Feature-Selected model, which would drive an estimated 1.8 million dollars in annual savings.

Predicting Lead Conversion Using ML

Notebook Link: Predicting Lead Conversion

- Developed a model to identify leads likely to convert to paid customers for an EdTech startup.
- Achieved an 89% recall with an optimized Random Forest model, enhancing marketing strategies, operational efficiencies, and overall business performance.
- Provided advanced recommendations to enhance business strategy.

FoodHub Order Data Analysis

Notebook Link: FoodHub Order Data Analysis

- Conducted in-depth analysis of orders for a food aggregator, transforming raw data into actionable insights.
- Leveraged exploratory data analysis, feature engineering, and data visualization using Python libraries to uncover key insights on demand patterns, cuisine preferences, and service optimization.
- Provided key insight into market expansion opportunities.
